Carrying Identification

You and each person in your group are responsible for carrying valid passports, visas, and any other documentation required for your destination(s). Passports should be valid for at least six (6) months beyond your return date. Children and infants must also carry required documentation.

Failure to comply may result in denied boarding, delays, missed flights, missed tours, or denied entry into a country.

Entry and Exit Requirements

Each country has its own entry rules, including restrictions for past criminal offenses. Revital Travel does not control visa issuance. You are responsible for obtaining and maintaining valid visas. Issuance of a visa does not guarantee entry, as local immigration officials make final decisions.

Denial or delay of entry for any reason is not grounds for a refund.

Safety

Travel carries inherent risks. You are responsible for reviewing current travel advisories and safety information from the U.S. Government prior to and during travel.

Please consult resources such as:

- U.S. State Department: www.state.gov
- TSA: www.tsa.gov
- CDC: www.cdc.gov

Participation in our services acknowledges that you accept all associated risks. Revital Travel is not liable for personal injury, property loss, delays, or other travel-related incidents.

Authority and Responsibility

You warrant that you are at least 18 years of age and have legal authority to make travel bookings with Revital Travel. You agree to be financially responsible for all bookings made by you or your account.

Booking Policies

- Legitimate Reservations Only: You agree not to make fraudulent, speculative, or false bookings.
- Supplier Terms: Separate terms from airlines, hotels, cruise lines, and other suppliers apply. You must comply with supplier rules, including payments, availability, and restrictions.
- Third-Party Sites: You authorize Revital Travel to book travel through third-party platforms as necessary.

Payment and Cancellations

Final payment is due according to supplier deadlines. If full payment is not received, your reservation may be canceled, and deposits forfeited.

Cancellation requests must be in writing. Supplier and agency fees may apply and are non-refundable. Some suppliers do not provide refunds after payment.

Transportation and Travel Requirements

You are responsible for arranging transportation to and from your departure airport unless otherwise stated.

- Domestic flights: minimum 2 hours prior to departure
- International flights: minimum 3 hours prior to departure

Failure to use a reservation may result in cancellation of all subsequent flights. Departure taxes may be required in certain countries.

No Refund for Unused Arrangements

Unused travel components, including tours, transfers, and flights, are non-refundable.

Currency Fluctuations

Prices are subject to change due to exchange rate fluctuations, surcharges, tariffs, or taxes.

Health and Medical Requirements

You are responsible for obtaining required vaccinations and medical documentation. Pregnant travelers must comply with airline and cruise line rules.

Facilities abroad may not meet U.S. standards. Travelers are responsible for ensuring they are fit for travel.

Limitations of Responsibility

Revital Travel does not own or operate travel services. We act only as a booking agent for independent suppliers including airlines, hotels, and cruise lines. Each supplier is responsible for providing their own services.

We are not liable for:

- Supplier errors, omissions, delays, or failures
- Personal injury, property damage, death, or other losses
- Force majeure events including natural disasters, strikes, terrorism, government actions, or weather

Your sole remedy is limited to the commissions and fees received by Revital Travel within the twelve (12) months prior to any claim.

Travel Insurance

Travel insurance is highly recommended and may protect against losses due to cancellation, interruption, medical emergencies, baggage issues, supplier default, and other risks. Unless specifically stated, travel insurance is not included in your booking.

Revital Travel reserves the right to use photos or videos taken during trips for promotional purposes unless you notify us in writing in advance.
